Joseph W. Markling Is Appointed to Executive Committee of BOMA International

(Los Angeles, CA — August 12, 2008) The Board of Governors of the Building Owners and Managers Association (BOMA) International has elected Joseph W. Markling, Senior Vice President of Lowe Enterprises Investors, LLC and Chairman of the Board of BOMA of Greater Los Angeles, to BOMA International's Executive Committee, during the 2008 BOMA International Conference and The Office Building Show, held in Denver, Colorado.

Mr. Markling, Senior Vice President of Lowe Enterprises Investors, LLC is responsible for portfolio management for Lowe California Community Fund and is accountable for shared responsibility for Lowe Real Estate Income and Growth Partners. Lowe Enterprises, Inc, is a diversified national real estate company with headquarters in Los Angeles. The firm specializes in commercial, hospitality and residential property investment, management and development.

Mr. Markling has also held the position of Senior Account Director with CB Richard Ellis Investors, directing a nationwide staff of management and leasing professionals. The portfolio consisted of more than 12 million square feet of office and industrial space valued at $1.5 billion.

An active participant in BOMA International, Mr. Markling has also served as a member of the Board of Directors of BOMA of Greater Los Angeles from 2003-2004, and as Chair of the Government Affairs Committee from 2005-2006. He became Chairman of the Board in 2007. "As a committed member of BOMA International, I am very pleased to accept the honor of this appointment to the Executive Committee," he said.
